News Gets Top Award In State Paper Contest

Charles Hornaday, issue editor, and Carol Sutliff, managing editor of the B-G News, place the newly-acquired trophy of the News in the Social Committee display case in the Ad. Bldg.

The B-G News was judged the best college newspaper in the daily division at the annual Ohio College Newspaper Association Convention in Columbus last week end.

The contest, in which the B-G News was competing against such schools as Ohio State University, Miami University, and Ohio University, was judged by Norman D. Christenson, director of publications at Miami University in Florida. It is the first time that Bowling Green has won first place honors. The trophy is now on display in the social committee display case on the first floor of the Ad Bldg.

Individual Honors

Robert Askey received an honorable mention for the best cartoon idea for his cartoon on the pre-dawn pep rally which appeared in the Nov. 14 issue of the News.

Donald Brenner was awarded third place in the best feature story contest for his feature on a Bowling Green student's trip to Alaska.

An action shot of a Bowling Green football game gave Gene Davis, B-G News photographer, first place in the best photograph contest.

More Recognition

The News also received two other honorable mentions at the awards dinner held in the Ohio State Union Saturday evening. An honorable mention was granted in the best advertising contest, and the election Watch Night, sponsored by the News, was awarded an honorable mention in the best public affairs campaign contest.

Eight representatives of Bowling Green were at the convention. They were Donald C. Peterson, adviser; Robert A. Steffes, adviser; Carol Sutliff, Charles Hornaday, Conrad Radwanski, Harold Miller, Patricia Guthman, Daniel Baker, and Lois Nelson.

Pledge Community Project Nets $128

A total of $128.90 was collected for the cancer drive by Delta Zeta sorority and Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity pledge classes last Saturday.

The money was collected during a Pledge Community Project, in which the pledges worked from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. The work consisted of washing windows and walls, washing cars, painting, shoveling stones, spading gardens, lawn work, and other general clean-up work.

The work was done for townspeople, faculty members of the University, and several of the local business establishments. According to the co-chairmen of the project, Dave Ledvina and Dorothy Cooley, about 80 per cent of the money came from work that was done for the home owners of the community. The pledges worked for 27 different persons.

The pledge classes had a picnic and wiener roast at Urschel Pond until 8 o'clock.

Chest Drive May Be Held Early Next Fall

Tentative date for the chest drive next year is the week of Oct. 11. It will be conducted in a manner similar to this year and the plans at present are to have the drive close with a carnival.

New co-chairmen for next year's drive are Lois Radomsky and Phil Bertman, both of whom will be juniors. The senior representatives are Bill Bittner and Betty Gorsuch, and the sophomores, Janice Crouch and Robert Lauer.

Queen, Officers, Senators Election Planned For May 6

Class officers, May Queen and attendants, and Student Senate members will be elected on one Election Day, Wednesday, May 6.

Elections committee of Student Senate decided that a unified election day would better stimulate campus participation and voting, according to David Dawson, chairman of the committee.

The elections will take place in the Nest in another unusual arrangement. Students will enter the Nest through the north door leading to the television room. Pictures of candidates for one of the elections will be placed on the walls of this back room.

Others Displayed
In the main room of the Nest, screens will be used to display the remaining pictures of candidates for other elections.

Voting will be held in the main room, and will be conducted by members of the elections committee.

Dawson announced that publicity for the elections will be handled through four media. The University public address system will broadcast spot announcements between classes. Classroom announcements and general posters will be used.

Rally Planned
A student rally will be held May 5, to present the candidates to the student body. Senate public relations committee will also distribute mimeographed material concerning Senate candidates' qualifications and platforms.

The public relations committee and its freshman sub-committee will work with Dawson's group in carrying out the publicity program.

Pictures for May Queen candidates are due May 3.

Students Discuss Three Dimensionals

By RON RITTER

With the current success of three-dimensional films, the movie industry has been rejuvenated and the major Hollywood companies are now producing many of their films in three-dimension.

Since Cinerama was released in New York City six months ago, the top executives of Hollywood feel that sooner or later the studios will have to decide on one standard process, either flat which is two dimensional or the currently popular 3-D.

Students were asked what they thought of 3-D movies and what they think will be their future in the motion picture industry.

Sam Martin, sophomore, said, "Present 3-D's aren't too enjoyable because of the glasses that the audience are required to wear. The current stories are not too enjoyable and once the picture has started you do not notice the effect except for an occasional flying missile."

Helen Sikora, junior, was very much impressed with them. She said though they are not very good at the current time, they will do a great deal in getting people back into the theaters and away from the television set.

REPRESENTATIVES TRAVEL TO MEET
Bowling Green sent six representatives to the state convention of the Ohio Association of Speech and Hearing Therapists in Columbus April 17 and 18.

Group Debates NSA Placates News Waits

Final vote on affiliation of Student Senate with National Student Association was tabled at Monday's meeting. This action was taken until a complete report of Senate NSA investigating committee could be published in the B-G News. Senate's action directly opposed its decision of last week to cast the final vote Monday.

Seniors will be allowed to vote for Senate officers and members because of a change made by Senate in the student body-approved addition to the constitution.

Sections B and C of the approved plan, concerning time and procedure of election, were incorporated into the by-laws of Senate.

May Day Committee

A new May Day committee was appointed since a majority of the previous group were freshman and transfer students. Members are Margaret Miller, chairman; Patricia Veitmeier, Donald Brenner, Jack Schierloh, and Maxine Brown.

Under serious consideration was the matter of how effective the present class organization is. An investigating committee includes Joyce Crede, chairman; Sally Schmidt, Lois Diehl, Evelyn Pond, and Nancy Brown.

Contribute To Fund

Senate allocated $25 as a pledge to the Alice Prout Scholarship Fund with the recommendation that future Senates add to the donation.

William Dunn was appointed chairman of a committee to study the nature and purpose of a campus forum on loyalty investigations in higher education.

Famous Musicians Will Appear Here With Herman Herd

DOLLY HOUSTON
Woody Herman's Vocalist

Producing top flight musicians and recording smash jazz hits are the trademarks of the U-A Prom band this year, Woody Herman.

Herman, who is presently backing "The Biggest Show of 1953" with Ella Fitzgerald, Frankie Laine, and Louis Jordan, will bring his Third Herd here on May 23. Featured with the Herman Herd are Arno Marsh, tenor saxophone; Carl Fontana and Urbie Green, trombones; Art Mardigan, drums; and vocalist Dolly Houston.

Colleges all over the country have been on the Herman engagement list, and top dance spots such as Palladium, Los Angeles; Blue Note, Chicago; and Birdland, New York, have drawn large crowds for the Herman band.

Among the vast library of records which Herman has made, both with older bands and the current one, like Caledonia, Apple Honey, Wild Root, Bijou, and Early Autumn, have become synonymous with the group. The present band has brought forth new ideas and young musicians, combining them on their current Mars recordings of "Perdido," "Stomping at the Savoy," "Mother Goose Jumps" and "Buck Dance."

Herman, besides doubling on clarinet and alto saxophone, also handles a majority of the vocals.

Alice Prout Scholarship Fund Hits $2,000 Mark

The Alice Prout Scholarship Fund had grown to $2186.50 from money and pledges of 226 contributors by Thursday afternoon.

The fund was set up Monday morning by University officials after the Frank J. Prout family requested that no flowers be sent in honor of Mrs. Prout. No definite use has been designated yet for the fund.

Contributions for the scholarship fund are being accepted in Pres. Ralph W. McDonald's office.

Mrs. Prout was killed in an automobile accident twelve miles east of Bowling Green Sunday afternoon. Dr. Prout, who was slightly injured, has returned from the hospital to his home in Sandusky.

Funeral services for Mrs. Prout were held Tuesday afternoon in the Frank J. Prout Chapel, with the Rev. Walter C. Eyster of the Bowling Green First Methodist Church officiating.

Members of the immediate family and close Bowling Green and Sandusky friends attended the service in the Chapel. Representatives of the Alpha Xi Delta active and alumnae chapters, to which Mrs. Prout belonged, and Phi Delta Theta fraternity representatives also attended.

Groups Usher

Because of the limited space in the Chapel, 12 representatives of the student body and 12 representatives of the faculty and employees and their wives were asked to attend.

Members of Omicron Delta Kappa, national leadership honor society for men, ushered in the Chapel. Alpha Phi Omega members ushered in the Main Aud. where the services were broadcast to students, faculty, and other friends.

Secrers Named

Honorary pallbearers were Pres. Ralph W. McDonald, Dr. George A. Bowman, president of Kent State University, Dr. James R. Overman, Dr. K. H. McFall, Dr. Herschel Litherland, Dr. Benjamin L. Pierce, Dr. Emerson C. Shuck, Dean Arch B. Conklin, Senator Fred Adams, Alva A. Bachman, and Carl Schwyn.

Active pallbearers were Dr. E. T. Smith, Dr. Ralph G. Harshman, H. L. Bowman, W. C. Donahey, E. J. Kreischer, and John W. Bunn.

Burial was in Sand Hill Cemetery, south of Sandusky.

Men To Dance In Orchesis Concert

Two men will participate for the first time in the annual spring concert of Orchesis, modern dance club, to be held May 1 and 2 in the Main Aud. They are Thomas Hasson and Terry Shown.

A variety of numbers have been chosen by the club including "Chicken Reel," "Brief Interlude," and "California." All choreography was done by members of Orchesis this year.

A unique number to be presented is "Dirge for Two Veterans" to be sung by eight members of Treble Clef. Also featured in the number is a solo by Alice Sutkaitis, president of Orchesis.

Included in the show will be a number of solos, duets, and trios, and a few group numbers by members of the intermediate dance group.

The 30 touring members, including Director J. Paul Kennedy, traveled by automobile to Cleveland Heights; Geneva, N. Y.; Rome, N. Y.; and New York City. Highlighting the trip was a one and a half day visit in New York City. The group stayed in the Victoria Hotel just off Times Square.

Club members reported visiting various Broadway theaters and movie houses, the United Nations Building, the Empire State Building, Carnegie Hall, Radio City, the Columbia Broadcasting System, and many more of the city's famed sights.

Competent Cast Gives Suspense To 'The Traitor'

By LOIS NELSON

A small, suspense-filled audience witnessed the opening, Wednesday night, of "The Traitor," last of the University Theatre productions for this year.

Absolutely cast with many familiar members of our University stage, "The Traitor" deals with the current problem of Communist educators at work in U.S. colleges, and atomic spies. The play offers many concepts and rationalizations for Russia's actions in the past few years.

Tom Roland, as the traitor, Dr. Carr, capably portrays the confused atomic physicist who releases important information to a Communist hierarchy. His "logical thinking" and excuses for his actions make everyone in the audience sit up and take stock of his own thinking.

Dwight Rangelier is well cast as Prof. Tobias Emanuel, the old and respected philosophy professor who befriends Dr. Carr, and is completely broken up by the outcome of events.

Mary Lou Barnum, Robert Smith, and Larry Selka turned in their usual fine performances in supporting roles, as well as Betty Gorsuch, Carolyn O'Connor, and Hal McGrady.

The play will continue tonight and Saturday in the Main Aud.

In Our Opinion

In Memoriam

One of the best advocates of Bowling Green State University was killed last week end in the person of Mrs. Alice Prout.

Not only was she the wife of our well-known former president, Dr. Frank J. Prout, but she was also a personal friend to many students. Those who knew her realized her monumental integrity which was evidenced through her gracious charm.

Our sincere sympathy goes to Dr. Prout for the loss of his wife, who will long be remembered for her benevolent spirit.

News Clarifies Policy

The B-G News was not consulted on the motion mentioned in a page one story of this issue, passed by Student Senate last Monday. Printing in entirety of the report of any campus group, especially if that report recommends that those affected by it take certain action, is foreign to this paper's news policy. In our news columns we endeavor to represent both sides of the question (as we have already done with the NSA question in last Friday's News).

We reserve editorial space for closer examination of certain subjects which we believe to be of definite campus interest, and reserve space for opinions of our readers in the Letters to the Editor column. A provision of our policy allows us to print basic revisions to Student Senate's constitution, however.

It has been suggested to Senate spokesmen that the NSA examining committee make full use of our Letters to the Editor column so that their opinion may be brought to the attention of the campus. Meanwhile, Senate's action on the proposal of NSA coming to Bowling Green will be reported as it happens.

Success Comes Calling

The B-G News went to Columbus last week end and came back with a pretty good sweep of Ohio College contest awards. Out of 11 classifications, the News won five prizes and topped that by obtaining the Scripps-Howard trophy for the best college paper in the daily division.

Success means a lot sometimes, especially if it's the first time that your paper has won the state contest, which includes competition with schools far superior in enrollment. Of course, we feel especially thankful for the honors and will try to multiply them into increased progressiveness for everyone's benefit, but just for awhile—let us shine our trophy.

Lines At Deadline

Suggested slogan to be inscribed on the door of a Bowling Green student's car: "Through these portals pass the bravest women in the world."

"Well, bless my wool," said the ram as he plunged over the cliff, "I didn't see that ewe turn."

Two drunks were walking up the railroad track.

1st drunk: "Thish is the longest stairway I ever saw."

2nd drunk: "I wouldn't care how long it was if the hand rails weren't so low."

Prof to tardy student: "You should have been here at nine!"

Student: "Why, what happened?"

Man is nothing but dust, and women can effectively settle him.

Pity The Mailman-- 5,000 Letters Daily From Post Office

Students contribute their share to the 5,000 letters that go out of the University Post Office each day.

By PAT FINK

"Peek here," said a little note scribbled next to a neatly square-cut hole on the side of a newly-wrapped package. To make postal inspection easier and prevent the package from being torn open, this was done as a service to the University post office.

Such occurrences happen often at the post office, but are considered all in a day's work. Serving Bowling Green students and faculty for about 15 years, the post office was originally located in the business office and the mail was delivered to the dorms and houses. As the enrollment increased, however, the service was discontinued and the post office was moved to a small room on the right side of the Ad Bldg. Just this year it was moved to its new location, opposite the registrar's office.

5,000 Letters Handled Daily

Each day the post office handles about 5,000 letters, 40 or 50 mailing cases, and about $75 in cash. These figures are tripled before holidays and vacations. It also sells stamps, money orders, and registers mail. However, it doesn't cash postal notes or money orders. One of the most annoying troubles of the post office is the daily deluge of mail which has to be forwarded, due to a wrong address. Students are urged to correct mail cards whenever necessary for their own convenience. Also, return addresses would save a lot of letters from the dead-letter office.

The post office is under the supervision of Paul Shepherd, who also is manager of the University Bookstore. The other full-time employees are Virginia Awad, Joanne Herringshaw, and Florence Wasilowski.

Tips From Manager About Mailing
Mr. Shepherd states that, "Students should have money sent by check or registered mail, never by cash. This way you will be sure of getting your money. Also, be sure of correct addresses and inquire about the size and weight of packages mailed before you wrap them. This way you'll save yourself and us a lot of unnecessary work."

is requested to call at the office of the Dean of Students and obtain an application form.

Applications for staff positions for next year's Key are available in the Key office from 1 to 4:30 every afternoon. Applications should be returned to the office by Friday, May 1.

LETTERS To The Editor

Dear Editor:

Greek Week for 1953 having come to an end, the committee wishes to extend its most sincere thanks to everyone who in any way participated in making this year's Greek Week a success.

To thank here all those deserving of thanks would provide us with a list far too extensive for this column — suffice it to say it took every Greek from every organization on campus as well as many, many others to make Greek Week a success. We would, however, like to make special mention and give a special hand to the untiring aid of the following: Helen Sikora, Bob Capps, Hugh Simmonds, and the faculty speakers for the planning and carrying out of the exchange dinners; "Doc" Lake, Dick Longanbach, Nick Milet, Interfraternity and Panhellenic Councils, Theta Chi pledges, JoAnn Kostelnik, and Nancy Richardson for their work on the banquets.

To the vast dance committee we extend an enormous round of applause — especially Chuck Jacobs, Robin Smith, Bob Daniels, Bill Duff, Harry Bowers, Kay Metz, Bob Trachnea, Sam Martin, John Chambers, Ray Mago, Nan Kernohan, Pat Lash, Anne Bartles, and Jan Nowack, and the Sigma Nu pledges who devoted long hours providing us with the atmosphere of "Greeks in Modern Effigy."

Last, but certainly not least, we wish to thank Bob Guide and his committee for the very effective Interfraternity Sing, Mac Hamlin and Nancy Hartwig for the exceptionally fine publicity and use of the airplane, and Chuck Bonser who so ably served as treasurer.

We again extend our most sincere thanks to every Greek on campus, for it indeed took every one of us working together to make Greek Week—1953 a success—and now to next year's Greek Week Committee we extend our very best wishes for an even bigger and better Greek Week in 1954.

Very sincerely yours,

Pat Clark, Dave Freedheim

OU Nine Here For Two MAC Encounters

Bowling Green's diamond nine, which drubbed Miami's Redskins 17 to 2 and lost to Michigan Normal 9 to 7 during the past week, will take on Ohio University's Bobcats in a two-game series here this afternoon and tomorrow.

The two Bobcat tilts will give the Falcons their second taste of Mid-American Conference competition; the Miami massacre being their initial appearance in conference play.

A pre-game ceremony, which is to take place twenty minutes before this afternoon's game will open festivities. At that time members of both squads will be presented at home plate, and following this, Dr. Ralph W. McDonald will throw the first pitch.

His battery mate will be Dean A. B. Conklin and the batter will be Jesse Currier, head of the journalism department. Following the ceremonies, at 3:30, the Falcons will take the field to try and protect their undefeated record in the conference.

Field Day At Miami

Last Saturday's game at Miami turned out to be a field day for the Falcons as they practically ran the home team off the field.

After the Falcons had scored five runs in the opening frame, the game was never in doubt as the BG hitters and pitcher Chuck Hunter combined to completely pulverize the Redskins.

The hitters continued to shell Miami's hurlers as the game progressed, collecting a total of twenty base knocks for the affair. Following the five-run first inning they batted across three more in the second, five in the third, one in the fourth, and finished with three in the sixth.

Hunter Holds Down Hits

Meanwhile, Hunter was limiting the home nine to six safeties and only two runs; one in each of the first two innings. In going the distance, Hunter walked six and fanned the same number of Redskin batters.

Jerry Omori and Ronald Penkoff led the BG hitting attack. Omori collected three for five, including a double and a home run, while Penkoff punched out four singles in six trips to the plate.

Wild Pitching Loses Game

In Tuesday's loss to Michigan Normal, wild pitching on the part of the BG hurlers was the main reason for the locals dropping their first encounter of the season.

Coach Warren Steller started John Paridon on the mound for the locals, and after BG scored two markers in the opening frame, he held the Hurons scoreless, but ran into trouble in the second frame when he was unable to get the ball over the plate.

In that frame he gave up four hits and walked four, which combined with a Falcon error produced six runs for the home team.

Hunter, who had good control in the Miami game, retired the side, but ran into trouble himself in the fourth inning.

In that frame he walked two and gave up a pair of hits, and the Hurons had three more runs. Don Doran finished the game on the mound for BG, holding the Normal squad scoreless for the final three frames.

Bowling Green's tallies came in the first when they scored twice, in the fourth when they collected a single run, and in the fifth, their best inning, when they pushed four runs across the plate.

Leading the Falcon hitting attack was Ron Penkoff, Gene Bunker and Al Ikeda, who collected two hits a piece.

BG Trackmen Lose To W. Michigan; At Ohio U Tomorrow

The 1953 edition of the Falcon track team got off to a bum start last Saturday as it dropped its first meet to Western Michigan 85-51, but are out to make a better showing at Ohio University this week.

Tomorrow's fracas should be a tough grind for both outfits, but Ohio may have the edge since it has some tough boys back from last year.

Returning, Ohio U. has a mile relay team that tromped the local boys last year and set a new Ohio record for the run. Coming back also will be the 880-yd. foursome of Arcangel, Fleitz, Laughlin, and McCoy.

Locals Win Seven First Places

Last week's met wasn't much of an affair as the score indicates, but the locals did manage to cop seven first places with W. Michigan taking the other nine.

The half-mile relay was won by Harking, Nugent, Askoul, and Jones with a time of 1 min. 32.2 sec. Marv Crosten copped the distance run of one mile with a 4 min. 41.7 sec. time. Hargrave and Hardilton of WM were second and third respectively.

Sandy Wins With 10.3

Nugent of Western won the 440 in 51.1 sec. while Maurice Sandy took the 100-yd. dash with a good 10.3 time.

Other Bowling Green wins included Ray Bertelsen copping the 880-yd. run in 2 min. 9.4 sec.; Marv Crosten taking the two-mile run in 10 min. 9.4 sec.; Bill Bradshaw took the high jump at 5 ft. 8 in.; Sandy won the broad jump with a 21 ft. 3 1/2 in. leap; and Bradshaw repeated another first place by heaving the javelin 161 ft. 8 in.

Golf Team Travels To Ohio Wesleyan As Season Opens

With most of their practice sessions postponed because of snow the golf season is here and Coach Don Cunningham is hoping for the best.

The hopes of a successful season are resting on lettermen Dave Slough, Jim Dysinger, and Dick Rodney. Newcomers Paul Fisher, Dick Wright, Bob Zenobi, Virg English, and other candidates are being banked on to produce capable fourth and fifth men.

The season opens today with a match against Ohio Wesleyan at Ohio Wesleyan's York Temple Golf Course. Last year Ohio Wesleyan was the Ohio Conference champ. Their three returning lettermen are Ron Kulp, who was a co-medalist in the Ohio Conference match, Bill Amick, and Fred Vickers.

The second match shapes up as the toughest of the season. This match is with Ohio University and it will be their thirteenth match of this season. They opened with an eight-match road trip through the South. Their record last year was thirteen victories, three losses, and one tie. This match will be tomorrow at Ohio U.

Tennis Team After Third Win In Mich. Normal Match Today

Coach Ken Walker's Falcon Tennis Team will be out for its third win in a row here today against a veteran Michigan Normal squad, and will play host to Denison on the BG courts tomorrow in what looks like another rugged match.

Bowling Green came through in fine style in its opener against Bethany College here Saturday, winning 5-2, and added a second victory Wednesday, 5-4, with Lawrence Tech as the foe.

Michigan Normal is expected to bring a strong team to Bowling Green this afternoon, with a squad composed of three veterans and a pair of promising freshmen.

Normal Has Three Veterans

Captain Mel Best, George Menzie, and George Grisdale are the letter-winners from last year's team, and Dick Rabbe and Willis Kraus round out the starting five. The Falcons topped the Michigan school 4-3 last season.

Normal will be playing its opener today; the only previously scheduled match, against Hillsdale, was postponed because of snow.

In squeezing past Lawrence Tech Wednesday, the Falcons won four of six singles matches, then dropped two straight doubles matches before taking the final match to ice the victory.

Bianchi Continues To Impress

In the singles Al Bianchi continued his impressive play, dumping John Dean, 6-1, 6-1, followed by Manny Koginos' and Dave Angus' decisions over Carl Hamilton and John Grindrod respectively.

Koginos won by 6-2, 6-2, and Angus by 7-5, 7-5.

Dick Schultz and Don Packard then dropped Bowling Green's first two matches of the day as Lawrence Tech's Rod Shambrook and Tom Solaka turned on the power. Shambrook topped Schultz, 1-6, 6-4, 0-6, while Solaka defeated

Packard, 2-6, 6-8.

Don Jones won the Falcons' fourth point in singles matches, trimming LT's Larry Szeen by 8-6, 6-0.

In doubles competition, BG took it on the chin twice as duets of Angus-Schultz and Packard-Jones dropped their matches to Tech's Shambrook-Grindrod and Solaka-Szeen.

Koginos and Bianchi teamed to win the last doubles match, outlasting Hamilton and Dean, 6-2, 7-9, and 6-3.

COLLEGE STUDENTS PREFER LUCKIES IN NATION-WIDE SURVEY!

Nation-wide survey based on actual student interviews in 80 leading colleges reveals more smokers prefer Luckies than any other cigarette by a wide margin. No. 1 reason—Luckies' better taste. Survey also shows Lucky Strike gained far more smokers in these colleges than the nation's two other principal brands combined.

Be Happy—GO LUCKY!

Nothing-no, nothing-beats better taste
and LUCKIES
TASTE BETTER!
Cleaner, Fresher, Smoother!

Ask yourself this question: Why do I smoke?
You know, yourself, you smoke for enjoyment.
And you get enjoyment only from the taste of a cigarette.
Luckies taste better—cleaner, fresher, smoother!
Why? Luckies are made better to taste better. And, what's more, Luckies are made of fine tobacco.
L.S./M.F.T.—Lucky Strike Means Fine Tobacco.
So, for the thing you want most in a cigarette... for better taste—for the cleaner, fresher, smoother taste of Lucky Strike...

'The Lost Weekend' Replaces 'Camille'

"Camille" has gone down the rapids, according to James Limbacher, Cinema Club chairman. The film, scheduled to be shown Monday evening at 7 p.m., will be replaced with an exclusive showing of the Academy Award winner, "The Lost Weekend."

"Camille" was shown at a Niagara Falls film society last week end, according to a foot-long telegram sent by that society to the Museum of Modern Art in New York. "We were walking across the bridge over Niagara Falls and the first reel fell out of one of our member's hands and into the rapids," the telegram said.
